

Trout Lake 100 – June 13, 2020

Equine Distance Riding Association Endorsed/PNER Ride

“Moving Up to Longer Distances” – Clinic 3pm, Friday, near office area

There is a ride for everyone!

Intro Ride $75	25-mile or 50-mile $130	75-mile or 100-mile $155	100TYM Relay $250	25-mile Ride & Tie $150
----------------------------------	---	--	-------------------------------------	---

Pre-register and pre-pay by May 29 and save $10 off any entry fee. 50% Ride Mgr. discount (1 per ride).
No non-member fees or camping fees. Youth ride free! (50% discount provided by Anna & Mary Memorial Youth Fund.)
Entry fee includes BBQ dinner Saturday for riders. Extra dinners available for $10 each – reservation by May 29 required.

CWSF HAY REQUIRED by USFS
Plan ahead to find a source

ZERO TRACE Campsite
Bag and haul your manure/bedding/hay home OR the local 4-H Club will clean/haul manure for a cleaning fee donation (minimum $20 per horse)

Community fire
Join us at the fire to support our 75- and 100-mile riders!

Directions/Location: Mt. Adams Horse Camp, Trout Lake, WA – in the field adjacent to horse camp.
Do not come via FS23 through Randle, WA – this is not a horse trailer friendly route

From Oregon and I-84:

- Take exit 64 to Hood River and head North
- Cross the toll bridge over the Columbia River – toward White Salmon, WA (passenger autos & pickups $2.00 toll)
- Head West on Hwy 14 ~1mile
- Head North on Alt Hwy 141 ~4 miles
- Continue North on Hwy 141 ~20 miles to Trout Lake
- As you enter Trout Lake, bear right at the service station/cafe (Andy's)
- Follow signs and ribbons to ride camp

Alternates to Hood River bridge route:

- From the East cross the bridge at The Dalles to Dallesport and travel West on the WA side of the river along Hwy 14 to Alt Hwy 141
- From the West travel on Hwy 14 from Vancouver WA to Alt Hwy 141

EDRA Rules Apply – helmets required whenever mounted

Head Vet: Dr. Cassie Terry

Treatment Vet: Dr. Mike Foss

Ride Manager: Kathleen Ferguson, kfergus0n@outlook.com (509)322-5188 Mailing address: PO Box #12, Goldendale, WA 98620

This ride is an EDRA sponsored ride, supported by local residents Stephanie Irving and Stephen King, and a group of volunteers

See rules/ information/new website & Enter online at EDRA Website:

www.equinedistanceriding.com