GREAT FIRST RIDE or CONDITIONING RIDE!!

Trans Canada Trail, all-weather multi-use trail, good footing mostly level, hoof protection is advised. No farrier on site.

This ride is co-sanctioned by the American Endurance Ride Conference and the Endurance Riders Association of BC

All respective rules apply.

Directions: From the Mainland, take the ferry to Duke Point (make a free livestock reservation).
Take Hwy 1 to Hwy 18, west to Cowichan Lake. Turn left at Paldi Road.
Camp is 900 meters further on the right, just after the TC Trail crossing.

Camping: Base camp is in the historic Sikh community of Paldi, on private property.
There will be occasional log trucks passing slowly by camp. The compacted grassy field has lots of room and opens right onto the TC Trail. There is porta potty, campfire ring and water.

We are guests on private property. Horse containment is your responsibility.

50's have two wide and sturdy railroad trestle bridges included.

Ride camp opens Friday noon, get rider packages.

(Contact Miki Dekel if you need to come Thursday, no extra charge, just need to know)
