

May 11, 2019
Trail/30/50/75* TYM 50
EDRA Endorsed/Recorded Lifetime Miles
PNER Points
Clinic Friday at 2pm--TBD

CAMP: Central Washington, between Coulee City and Hartline, Washington off Highway 2. There are services in Coulee City. Easy access and lots of parking. Spread hay & manure, pack out all garbage, no campfires, repair any holes your horse digs. Camp and roads are nice and easy access for large rigs, lots of parking! Please, 1 horse per corral strongly preferred. No unsupervised dogs, lots of room to take them away from camp to play safely. No camping fees.

From the East: Take Hwy 2 from Spokane, WA 85 miles to mile post 197, camp will be on your right.

From the West: Hwy 17 to Coulee City, WA go 2 miles to the Hwy 2 junction, take a right towards Spokane, camp is just past mile post 196. There is a Google map on my website: www.coyoteridgeride.weebly.com

GENERAL: All EDRA & PNER rules apply. Hoof protection strongly recommended; helmets required when mounted. One out check area all distances will visit; 30's, 50's & 75's. It's a lovely farm up North. ☺ David Honan doing photography along Banks Lake, not to mention the lady that sits on her roof to get pics! ❤️

TRAILS: A variety of trails, some technical with some rock but a lot that you can make really good time on with the gravel roads, beautiful views! There will likely be a couple of shallow water crossings this time of year and lots of flowers! One out vet check area for 30-75 mile distances; there will be hay and water for horses and riders provided at the vet area. Trailer provided to take your out check goodies for you. The out check is at a nice farm that enjoys having us visit; say "hi" to them! This will be one big loop for 30's!

FOOD: Dinner will be provided Saturday afternoon; $10 for extra meals (this can be avoided by volunteering!), awards to follow. If you don't come to ride, come volunteer; we'll feed ya good! Come prepared to have dinner in the common area and do some socializing! Bill & I enjoy making you dinner.

VETTING: Dick Root, DVM is Head Vet. Vetting to start at 3 pm Friday. Ride meeting will be Friday evening.

ENTRY FEES & DISCOUNTS: TYM Relay~$95 per rider; 75~$140; 50~$110; 30~$95; Trail~$30. Half off for reciprocating Ride Managers and Jrs, Jrs will ride FREE (with the generous EDRA Jrs. Fundraiser), I will honor with or without funds. Canadian riders at par, no other discounts. PNER member discount of $5. Dinner included with all distances. Please go to my website to enter, you can pay on-line or choose to pay at the ride with a check, just use the discount code CHECK. Additional $10 fee after 5/7/19.
