Prater Mountain, located in beautiful Priest River, Idaho is honored to have the AHA Region 5 Endurance Championship, as well as, Prater Mountain being the final stretch for home in the NW Diamond Run series.

Riders that have already completed at Creek to Capitol Peak, Midnight Rider, and Crazy Days have the opportunity to slide into home base and find out if they will hold top honors.

Prater Mountain offers a 30 and 50-mile ride each day, and a poker ride being on Sunday only. The AHA Championship will be held concurrently with the 50-mile ride on Saturday only. Contact Jala Neufeld for more information on the AHA Championship ride at dktajay@gmail.com.

There will be a NEW 10-mile trail for the poker players that is easy and suitable for kids and young horses. There will be cash prizes for the winning hand. We offer incredible views, well-marked trails, and amazing awards.

Lunch is available for purchase and dinner is included with endurance ride entry. Dogs are welcome, but must be on leash at all times. For more information please to go Prater Mountain Endurance Ride Facebook, page.

All proceeds go to the Children's Village. To learn more about them visit: <http://www.thechildrensvillage.org/about>
